

The poster is designed to look like a stained glass window. It features a central archway with a sword pointing downwards. The sword's hilt is at the top, and the blade points down towards the bottom center. The archway is filled with various colored glass panes in shades of purple, yellow, and blue. The title 'Romeo and Juliet' is written in a gothic font across the arch. The dates and times are listed on the left side, and the composer and presenter information is on the right. The ticket information is at the bottom.
